

WHAT PARENTS OWE THEIR CHILDREN

Psalm 127:3

WHAT PARENTS OWE THEIR CHILDREN

- At some point, you have probably heard someone say that when your children are born, they don't come with a manual.
- My dad talks about how ignorant he was when I was born.
 - First, he wasn't prepared for how ugly I was.
 - Second, he didn't realize how often I needed to be fed.

WHAT PARENTS OWE THEIR CHILDREN

- Although, children don't come with a manual at birth about how often you need to feed them or how much tummy time they is necessary, there is a manual that we all have access to which provides what we need to know on how to properly raise our children.
