

A patriotic graphic for Veterans Day. It features three black silhouettes of soldiers in full combat gear, including helmets and rifles, standing against a background of the American flag. The stars of the flag are on the left, and the stripes are on the right. The text 'Happy Veterans Day!' is written in a large, white, serif font across the center. The bottom of the image has a black banner with the text 'Thank You for Serving!' in a white, handwritten-style font.

Happy
Veterans Day!

Thank You for Serving!

Veterans Day

- President Woodrow Wilson on November 11, 1919 enacted this holiday to commemorate the end of World War I. Our enemies surrendered on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918.

The Silent Season- 1918

How do we face opposition?

FLEE

- Do you attempt to avoid the opposition?
- This is an indication of fear.
- Rev. 21:8
- I Cor. 16:13

How do we face opposition?

FREEZE

- Have you ever been in a situation where you were caught off guard and just froze?
- This also has to do with fear a little.
- I kind of get the idea that this is what also happened to Peter in Matt. 26:69-75.

How do we face opposition?

FIGHT

- October 29, 1941
- Winston Churchill visited Harrow School near London, where he attended as a boy. He challenged his young audience with this statement- “Never give in—never, never, never!”
- I Tim. 6:12, Acts 5

